2004 Team Guide

Women's Soccer

2004 Season Preview

Half of the 2004 Cortland women's soccer roster is new. So, is the glass half empty or is it half full? Despite last season's disappointing 8-9-2 record and loss in the SUNYAC quarterfinals, first-year head coach Heidi Woodcock sees the glass as brimming over with possibilities of returning the program to the power it once was. Woodcock brings a positive attitude bred by great success during her collegiate career, where her team was a regular in the NCAA playoffs and she earned All-America honors.

Senior captain Bonnie McMillan.

Of the dozen new faces on the team, eight are freshmen, one is a sophomore and three are juniors. Overall, there are only three seniors on the squad, which lends promise to the future. But Woodcock is ready to turn the corner in 2004 and establish Cortland as a force in the SUNYAC and the state right now. Fortunately, she has the right tools with which to work.

Goalkeeper Christa Windhorst is one of the three seniors and a team captain. Last year, Windhorst stepped into the lineup and started each game, posting an 8-9-2 record with a 1.74 goals against average, a .766 save percentage, one solo shutout and four shared shutouts. Expect her to improve on those numbers in 2004. Junior Katie Killion is in her third year with the program and has played well in her time in the goal. Last season, Killion saw action in five games and registered a 0.88 GAA with an .800 save percentage and four shared shutouts. Freshman Shannon Burrows earned first team all-league honors three times while at Honeoye Falls-Lima High School.

Defensively, the Red Dragons will have a new look in 2004. Gone are four seniors from last season, and junior Gabby Hajduk is making the transition from forward. Hajduk is a strong, physical player and should step into a starting role. Sophomore Kendra Ryerson, who saw action in 16 games with eight starts in 2003, is a quick defender on the outside and should see plenty of playing time this season.

Junior Katie Dunn enters her second year on defense after making the switch from forward as a sophomore. That leaves four freshmen vying for time on the field, with a starting role possible. Colleen Martin was a four-year starting sweeper at Ward Melville High School, earning all-league and all-conference honors twice. Meredith Petrecki was a member of the Shenendehowa High soccer team that won a sectional title and was a state finalist her senior year. Michelle Lauria was a two-year starting sweeper at Webster Thomas, where she earned honorable mention All-Greater Rochester honors as a junior and senior. Kalli Ancil was a three-year starter at Eastchester High School, garnering honorable mention all-section honors twice.

Last season's midfield unit was young, which translates to more experienced in 2004. Senior captain Bonnie McMillan played in all 19 games last season with 12 starts and was third on the team with five assists. Now in her fourth year with the program, she'll be expected to lead the team on and off the field. Juniors Kelsey Geary and Dyan Voorhees started

18 and 19 games, respectively last season. Geary was a second team All-SUNYAC selection and led the team with 12 assists in 2003. An exceptional playmaker in the central midfield, Geary should continue to climb up the career assist list at Cortland. Voorhees has been steady on the right side of the midfield in her first two seasons. With her athleticism, she's able to push the ball forward and make a quick transition to the defensive side of the field when needed.

Senior goalkeeper Christa Windhorst.

Sophomore Lauren Sopko saw immediate playing time as a freshman. She appeared in all 19 games, including seven starts, in 2003 and could vie for a starting spot on the left side. A pair of junior transfers, Gennelle Frey and Christine Glovasky, will compete for immediate playing time. Frey was an all-conference and all-region midfielder at Monroe Community College, while Glovasky was a two-year starter at Broome Community College and helped her team win two conference crowns.

Even with the experience in the midfield, two freshmen, Ilona Szotyori and Shelly VanDusen, will push the others for playing time. Szotyori, a physical presence in the central midfield, was a two-time team MVP at Saugerties High School. VanDusen, a skilled speedster, was a four-year starter at West Canada Valley and earned multiple all-star honors in her career.

Senior Angela Bruno heads the list of Red Dragon forwards. Bruno enters 2004 ranked 20th in career scoring at Cortland with 49 points and will work her way up the list before the season is through. Bruno scored 13 points on six goals and an assist in 16 games last season. Sophomore Andrea Marino was named the SUNYAC First Year Player of the Year and honorable mention All-SUNYAC after scoring 21 points on seven goals and seven assists in 2003. The third returning forward is junior Kelli Oswald, who moves up from the midfield. Oswald enjoyed a very successful freshman year with nine points before being limited to eight games in 2003.

A trio of newcomers rounds out the forwards. Junior Marie Valentino put up big numbers at Tompkins-Cortland Community College, including five three-goal games in 2003. Sophomore Jacki Hutchins was a five-year starter at Elizabethtown-Lewis Central School, where she set a school record for career points. Freshman Kelly Perkins was a three-year member of the soccer team at Kenmore West as a central midfielder and makes the transition to forward this season.

This season offers a fresh perspective on the Cortland women's soccer team. A new head coach, a roster filled with new faces and a renewed commitment to success highlight the 2004 campaign. If all the components come together, the Red Dragons can celebrate a return to prominence and prove that the glass was always half full.

Coaching Staff

Heidi Woodcock
Head Coach

Heidi Woodcock enters her first season as the interim head coach of the Cortland women's soccer program after serving as an assistant coach for the Red Dragons during the spring of 2004. Prior to Cortland, Woodcock coached the Liverpool High School girls' junior varsity soccer team in the fall of 2003 and was an assistant coach for the bronze medal-winning Central Region women's open soccer team at the 2004 Empire State Games.

Woodcock is a 2002 graduate of Nazareth College, where she earned her bachelor's degree in psychology and was a starting sweeper for the nationally ranked women's soccer program. As a senior, she was named a second team All-American and the Empire 8 Player of the Year. Woodcock was also a two-time all-region and three-time all-state and all-conference selection.

A native of Liverpool, N.Y., Woodcock graduated from Liverpool High School in 1998. She earned all-state, All-Central New York and all-league honors in soccer and was a member of the track and field team.

Woodcock and her husband, Brett, a former Le Moyne College baseball player, currently reside in Liverpool.

Melissa Buonvecchio
Assistant Coach

Melissa Buonvecchio begins her first season as an assistant coach for the Cortland women's soccer program in 2004.

Buonvecchio earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from William Smith College in 2003. She was a four-year member of the women's soccer team as a goalkeeper and received the Aliceann Wilber and Melissa Mulliken Awards during her playing career. In 2003, the team reached the NCAA final four. Buonvecchio also played guard on the Herons' women's basketball team for two seasons.

Buonvecchio, who currently resides in East Syracuse, N.Y., graduated from East Syracuse-Minoa High School in 1999, where she competed in soccer, basketball and softball.

+ Mary Washington (VA) Tournament

SUNYAC Quarterfinals (at Cortland)

Sophomore forward Andrea Marino was named the SUNYAC First Year Player of the Year in 2003 after scoring 21 points, the most by a Cortland freshman since Janet Urban in 1992.

2003 Game-by-Game Recaps

Cortland 3, Manhattanville 0 (Aug. 30; Cortland, NY)

Andrea Marino scored on her first collegiate shot in the 11th minute, and Jodie Gabel and Kelsey Geary each registered a goal and an assist as the Red Dragons dominated the Valiants. Cortland outshot Manhattanville 37-5, and Christa Windhorst was forced to make just one save in earning the shutout in her first game as a Red Dragon.

Rochester 4, Cortland 0 (Sept. 3; Rochester, NY)

Rochester scored two goals in the first 12 minutes to take control of the game. The Yellowjackets outshot Cortland 11-1 in the opening half and sealed the game with goals in the 64th and 66th minutes. Christa Windhorst made five saves in goal for the Red Dragons.

St. Lawrence 2, Cortland 1 (Sept. 6; Canton, NY)

After Cortland took a 1-0 halftime lead on Jodie Gabel's unassisted goal from the top of the box in the 20th minute, the Saints netted two second-half goals to earn the victory. A breakaway score in the 80th minute proved to be the game winner for St. Lawrence. Christa Windhorst stopped six shots for the Red Dragons.

Mary Washington 4, Cortland 1 (Sept. 13; Fredericksburg, VA)

Mary Washington scored just 40 seconds into the game en route to the win in the opening round of their own invitational. Andrea Marino scored her second goal of the season in the 77th minute to get the Red Dragons on the scoreboard, but Mary Washington closed out the scoring in the 88th minute for the final margin. Christa Windhorst registered seven saves for Cortland.

Cortland 3, Christopher Newport 1 (Sept. 14; Fredericksburg, VA)

After Christopher Newport took a 1-0 lead into intermission, the Red Dragons netted three goals in a 13-minute span in the second half to earn the win at the Mary Washington Tournament. Andrea Marino scored in the 56th minute, followed by goals from Jen Crook in the 65th minute and Jodie Gabel in the 69th minute. Gabel also added an assist, and Christa Windhorst made a season-high 11 saves.

Cortland 9, SUNYIT 0 (Sept. 17; Cortland, NY)

The Red Dragons improved to 3-3 overall and 1-0 in the SUNYAC with the convincing win. Kelsey Geary and Bonnie McMillan tied a school record with three assists each, while Jodie Gabel recorded two goals and two assists and three Red Dragons -- Cici Carter, Sue Lenzian and Theresa Sime -- each scored her first collegiate goal. Christa Windhorst and Katie Killion shared the shutout.

Plattsburgh 5, Cortland 1 (Sept. 26; Plattsburgh, NY)

Plattsburgh scored the game's first five goals, including three in the opening half, to end Cortland's modest two-game winning streak. Kelli Oswald set up Andrea Marino's goal in the 78th minute for the Red Dragons. Christa Windhorst and Katie Killion each played a half in goal.

Cortland 5, Potsdam 0 (Sept. 27; Potsdam, NY)

The Red Dragons rebounded with a rout of the Bears on the road. Jodie Gabel scored the first three goals of the game, all in the first half, raising her team lead to eight. Kelsey Geary matched the school record for assists in a game with three for the second time in 2003. Andrea Marino contributed a goal and two assists, and Kelli Oswald netted the game's final goal in the 76th minute.

Cortland 3, Brockport 2 (Oct. 3; Cortland, NY)

Cortland rallied from a 2-1 halftime deficit with a pair of second-half goals to secure the conference win. Jodie Gabel gave the Red Dragons a 1-0 lead in the 13th minute on a 20-yard curling shot in the wind. Cortland tied it in the 54th minute on an own goal as a Brockport player headed the ball into her own net, and Angela Bruno tallied the game winner in the 86th minute when she deposited a rebound in the right corner of the goal. Christa Windhorst earned the victory with five saves.

Geneseo 1, Cortland 0 (Oct. 4; Cortland NY)

The Red Dragons fell to 5-5 overall and 3-2 in the SUNYAC with the loss. The game's only goal came on a low shot from 15 yards out after a corner kick in the 62nd minute. The contest was played in a steady rain on a slick field and scoring chances were at a premium. Cortland had a goal disallowed with just two seconds remaining in the opening half due to a foul. Christa Windhorst made four saves.

2003 Game-by-Game Recaps

Ithaca 3, Cortland 2 (Oct. 7; Cortland, NY)

Ithaca netted the game's final three goals to spoil the Red Dragons' upset bid. Addie King gave Cortland a 1-0 lead in the 28th minute on a one-time shot from 28 yards out. Jodie Gabel tallied her 10th goal of the season on a 15-yard header off Kelsey Geary's free kick in the 43rd minute to put the Red Dragons ahead 2-0. The Bombers stole the momentum with a goal 47 seconds before intermission and another just 17 seconds after halftime and scored the game winner in the 76th minute. Christa Windhorst stopped seven shots.

Cortland 1, New Paltz 0 (Oct. 10; Cortland, NY)

Although the Red Dragons dominated play, outshooting the Hawks 34-8, they could only manage an early first-half goal in the win. Andrea Marino set up Angela Bruno's 10-yard one-time shot inside the right post in the 10th minute and Cortland's goalie tandem of Christa Windhorst and Katie Killion were forced to make just one save between them, keeping the Hawks winless in league play.

Oneonta 3, Cortland 0 (Oct. 11; Cortland, NY)

Eleventh-ranked and unbeaten Oneonta controlled most of the game, outshooting Cortland 23-5 and holding a decisive 14-1 advantage in corner kicks, en route to the win. Christa Windhorst made eight saves for the host Red Dragons, who saw their record fall to 6-7 overall and 4-3 in the conference.

Cortland 6, Buffalo St. 0 (Oct. 17; Buffalo, NY)

The Red Dragons surged out to a 4-0 halftime lead on their way to the important conference victory. Andrea Marino and Jodie Gabel each scored twice, while Kelsey Geary contributed a goal and two assists. Marino scored the first two goals of the game in the 13th and 21st minutes. Christa Windhorst made two saves in the opening 45 minutes, and Katie Killion stopped a season-high four shots in the second half.

Cortland 2, Fredonia 2 (2OT) (Oct. 18; Fredonia, NY)

An early scoring flurry ended with Cortland taking a 2-1 lead in the 17th minute of the game. Kelsey Geary put the Red Dragons ahead 1-0 in the 10th minute when she converted a penalty kick. After Fredonia tied the game at 1-1 in the 17th minute, Jodie Gabel responded with her 13th goal of the season just 30 seconds later. The Blue Devils tied the game in the 53rd minute. Christa Windhorst made five saves.

Cortland 2, Oswego 1 (OT) (Oct. 22; Cortland, NY)

Cortland clinched fourth place in the SUNYAC with the dramatic come-from-behind win. In a steady snowfall, Cici Carter ended the game when she scored on a breakaway 5:43 into overtime. Carter received a pass near midfield, dribbled down the left wing, beat a defender then tucked a shot inside the right post for the game winner. Oswego had taken a 1-0 lead in the 34th minute, but Cortland's Jen Crook tied the game in the 65th minute off a Kelsey Geary corner kick. The Red Dragons nearly won the game with less than 10 seconds remaining in regulation, but Jodie Gabel's shot was turned away at the goal line by an Oswego defender.

Cortland 2, Elmira 2 (2OT) (Oct. 25; Elmira, NY)

Angela Bruno scored a pair of goals, including the game-tying effort off an assist from Andrea Marino in the 85th minute, to help the Red Dragons earn the tie on the road. Both of Bruno's goals came in the second half and her second score came just 20 seconds after the Soaring Eagles had taken a 2-1 lead. Christa Windhorst turned aside seven shots.

William Smith 1, Cortland 0 (Nov. 1; Cortland, NY)

The Red Dragons concluded their regular season with a solid effort against the 21st-ranked Herons. The only goal came in the 66th minute on a 15-yard one-time shot to the lower right corner. Christa Windhorst, who stopped 10 shots in the game, kept the contest scoreless with three outstanding saves late in the first half. Angela Bruno nearly scored the equalizer in Cortland's first possession after William Smith's goal, but her shot rang off the left post.

Brockport 1, Cortland 0 (SUNYAC Quarterfinals) (Nov. 3; Cortland, NY)

Brockport avenged its regular-season 3-2 loss to the Red Dragons with the victory. The game's only goal came from eight yards out in the 71st minute. Cortland had two good opportunities to tie the game, but Jodie Gabel's 23-yard shot in the 76th minute sailed just wide left and Dyan Voorhees' header in the 77th minute was turned aside by the Brockport goalkeeper.

About SUNY Cortland

Located atop one of the rolling hills in central New York's "City of Seven Valleys," the State University of New York College at Cortland was founded in 1868 as the Cortland Normal School, which included among its earliest students inventor and industrialist Elmer A. Sperry of Sperry-Rand Corp. fame.

Over the decades, the campus expanded and in 1941, by an act of legislature and the Board of Regents, the institution officially became a four-year college providing courses leading to the bachelor's degree. In 1948, Cortland was a founding member of the State University of New York.

Today, approximately 7,500 students are pursuing degrees within the College's three academic divisions — arts and sciences, professional studies and the school of education. Twenty-three departments with a faculty of more than 400 offer the SUNY Cortland student body 70 majors and 44 minors from which to choose.

The College's main campus covers 191 acres and includes 30 traditional and modern buildings. Fourteen of these structures are residence halls providing on-campus housing for approximately 3,000 students. Cortland also operates its Outdoor Education Center at Raquette Lake in the Adirondacks, the Hoxie Gorge Nature Preserve outside Cortland, and the Brauer Memorial Geological Field Station on the Helderberg Escarpment near Albany.

At Cortland, athletics are viewed as having an important role in the educational mission of the College. During the fall, winter and spring seasons, Cortland participates in 25 intercollegiate sports — 14 women's and 11 men's — in an attempt to provide a broad program which meets the needs, interests and abilities of its students.

The Cortland athletic program placed eighth nationally out of 430 colleges and universities in the 2003-04 all-sport National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) Directors' Cup Division III standings. The award was formerly known as the Sears Directors' Cup from 1995-2002. Cortland is the only New York school and one of only six nationwide to finish in the top 20 each of the last nine years. Since 1989, the Red Dragons have captured 12 NCAA Division III team titles.

The College offers its student-athletes excellent athletic facilities. The newly-constructed on-campus stadium features two artificial turf fields. One field seats 6,500 spectators, the other 1,500. The Cortland football, field hockey, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's lacrosse and men's and women's track and field teams are among those who utilize the facility, which the New York Times called "...a new stadium worthy of a major university power."

The Bessie L. Park Physical Education and Recreation Center, opened in 1973, features the Whitney T. Corey Gymnasium with a 3,500 seating capacity; the Olympic-sized Harriet Holsten swimming pool with gallery seating for 1,500; the Alumni Ice Arena, a facility which can accommodate 2,500 spectators; a 500-seat gymnastics arena, racquetball and squash courts, a wrestling room, modern athletic training facilities and the state-of-the-art Francis Woods Fitness Facility.

Nearby Clayton R. Lusk Field House, with its tartan-textured surface, is home for the indoor track teams, varsity practice sessions and recreational activities. Cortland's soccer teams play on T. Fred "Prof" Holloway Field, which has lights for night contests and newly installed bleachers. The College also has 22 outdoor tennis courts and two outdoor basketball courts and boasts Robert H. Wallace Field (baseball) and Dragon Field (softball) as part of its 51 acres of athletic fields.
